CARRY CERTIFICATES

National defense selectees are required to carry their registration certificates on their person at all times, and to present it upon demand by proper authority. Lieutenant Colonel Mills F. Neil, State director of Selective Service has emphasized.

FARM LABOR SCARCITY

A shortage of farm labor, amounting to from 25 to 60 percent of normal, is predicted for the Eastern Atlantic area by Federal and State labor officials. The truck farming areas in Virginia, in Prince Anne County and the Eastern Shore, will face a shortage of about 10,000 workers, R. W. Hines, of the State Department of Agriculture's division of markets, has stated.

The farm labor situation is directly the result of the absorption of manpower in national defense work, the officials agreed. Thomas B. Morton, State Labor Commissioner, stated that it poses a problem for positive long-range planning, and is not acute in Virginia at present, except in the strawberry-growing regions.
